1. Swit was active in the Kielce area and at one time was a part of the AK (Home Army). A group of people became dissatisfied with the AK and formed the organization Swit under the leadership of WISLICZ. The group was then absorbed by the AL (People's Army).
2. After the liberation, WISLICZ became a member of the Sejm and chief of the Kielce National Council. After the war, Swit retained its identity and even organized a trade school for young people. The patron of this group was WISLICZ.
3. It was later determined that Swit was in competition with the PPR (Polish Workers' Party) and it was instructed to disband. In order to politically discredit the members of this organization the old system of circulating rumors that Swit placed Gestapo agents in the PPR was employed.
4. WISLICZ was later removed from his position in the Polish Government. Another individual who had been active in this group was Tadeusz ORKAN-LECKI. He was a colonel in the KBW (Internal Security Corps). When he was involved in an automobile accident, it was utilized to effect his removal. He had been a KBW commander in Olsztyn.
